

HAMILTON WILL CONTEST TO BE DISMISSED.

The contest of the will of Colonel A. W. Hamilton, of Mt. Sterling, by his sister, Mrs. Robert G. Stoner, formerly of Bourbon county, has been settled, and when the case is called before Judge Henry H. Prewitt it will be dismissed. The settlement came about in the way of a compromise, the terms of which are not made known. The estate consisted of some valuable lands and family heirlooms, some of which had belonged to the mother of Colonel Hamilton and Mrs. Stoner, and others to their father, including family jewels and a fine library. Mrs. Stoner thought these should have been left to her. The estate was willed by Colonel Hamilton to a niece, Ida Hamilton. Robert G. Winn, executor of the estate, represented himself in the litigation, assisted by Judge Ed. C. O'Rear, of the Court of Appeals. Franklin & Talbot, of Lexington and Paris, and R. G. Kern, of Mt. Sterling, represented Mrs. Stoner.

BREAKS BOTH ARMS.

Becoming overbalanced while leaning from a window in his room at the Windsor Hotel, Friday night, D. A. Sharpe, of Lexington, fell to the pavement below, a distance of fifteen feet. Both arms were broken. He was removed to the Massie Memorial Hospital, where the injured members were set. Sharpe was attending the sessions of the State Christian Endeavor Convention as a delegate from one of the Lexington societies.

GREAT SOUTHERN REFINERY ESTABLISHES LOCAL AGENCY.

What is destined to become one of the leading industries of the Blue Grass region is the new plant of the Great Southern Refining Co., located at Lexington, and which has become more than local in its character and scope.

The plant, which has a daily refining capacity of 2,400 barrels, is strictly a local industry, the money invested in it coming from local people, and all its interests being taken care of by men who are all residents of the State of Kentucky. This Company owns their own crude oil supply in Lee county, which is operated by their own forces directly under supervision of the company. This crude oil is transported on barges to Clay's Ferry, towed by steamboats, the largest on the Kentucky River, owned solely by this company. Here it is stored in huge tanks belonging exclusively to this company, from where it is piped in pipe lines owned by the Company, to their own refinery in Lexington.

The Great Southern Company is absolutely independent of railroad strikes and transportation companies. They own their own fleet of six large trucks, Whites, Packards, etc., the best that money can buy.

Mr. Oliver Mann, well and favorably known to the people of Paris and Bourbon county, has been appointed agent and salesman for Paris and Bourbon county. He will begin operating his truck here on May 15. Mr. Mann is a son-in-law of Carter N. Martin. He will be ready at all times to furnish customers with a high grade of petroleum products at prices that will be just right. (11)

THE BEALE MINSTRELS COMING TO OPERA HOUSE NEXT THURSDAY.

The Beale Minstrels, presenting "The Frolics of 1920," at the Grand Opera House next Thursday night, could rightly be termed the show of a thousand features, for it is just one big feature after another from the rise to fall of the curtain.

In the big company, numbering over fifty artists, such well-known glee, chasers as Geo. Horine, Gus Owens, Elmer Mullens, Cliff Bartram, E. E. Letton, Vertner Slade, J. B. Hallett, formerly with the Al G. Fields' Minstrels, (not sed), are found. The Eight Jolly Jazzers will dance their way through this merry mélange of comedy and song. In the ballad section of the show, Victor Seamon, James Henry and Jos. Huffman, supported by a chorus of twenty-five trained voices, will be heard in the latest New York songs.

A car load of scenery, costumes and electrical effects is carried by the company—song, dance and comedy reign supreme.

The Saver of Cootie Hill, a timely burlesque is one of the big features of the show. (adv-7-21)

"Can't Spare the Money"

Is that the answer you give the Life Insurance Salesman?

If YOU find it difficult to get along comfortably on your income, how is your family going to "make both ends meet," without it?

Your brains and ability at work represent your capital and assets. By using them you produce the income—when they are gone the income stops.

Life Insurance is the only guarantee against that certainty of loss.

For your Family it is an Absolute Necessity.
